

SUSTAINABLE FISHERIES AND AQUACULTURE: KEY DRIVERS FOR THE BLUE GROWTH IN THE ADRIATIC AND IONIAN REGIONS

JOINT LAUNCHING CONFERENCE OF ARIEL AND DORY PROJECTS

18th May 2018, H. 9.00 - 16.00
ANCONA - MOLE VNVITELLIANA
Banchina Giovanni da Chio 28

H. 9.00 – Participants registration

H. 9.15 – Welcome speech and conference opening

Angelo Sciapichetti – Marche Regional Councillor for Fishery and Aquaculture
Ambassador Fabio Pigliapoco – Senior Advisor, Adriatic and Ionian Initiative Permanent Secretariat

H.9.40 – H.10.30 Session I: European Territorial Cooperation projects: the contribution to the EUSAIR Blue Growth Pillar

Moderator: Mauro Marini – Responsible of CNR-ISMAR Ancona

DORY project “Capitalization actions for Adriatic marine environment protection and ecosystem-based management”

Laura Gagliardini – Marche Region officer and DORY project coordinator

ARIEL project “Promoting small scale fisheries and aquaculture transnational networking in Adriatic-Ionian macroregion”

Fabio Grati – Researcher CNR-ISMAR and ARIEL project coordinator

Achieving Blue growth: State of play and perspectives of Pillar 1 under the EUSAIR Strategy Veneto Region – Regional Focal Point Pillar 1, Italy (tbc)

H.10.30 – H.11.30 Session II: Innovation and sustainability in fisheries and aquaculture
Moderator: Corrado Piccinetti – Marine Biology and Fisheries Laboratory of Fano - Unibo

European Maritime and Fisheries Fund (EMFF) contribution to innovation and sustainability in fisheries and aquaculture
Walter Graziani – Ministry of Agricultural, Food and Forestry Policies (MIPAAF)

MSP supporting sea sustainable management at the macro-regional scale: the European Maritime Spatial Planning Platform
Martina Bocci – East Med Main Contact, European Maritime Spatial Planning Platform

Small-scale fisheries in the Adriatic Sea
Luca Bolognini – Researcher at CNR- ISMAR Ancona

Prospects of Aquaculture innovation in the Adriatic and Ionian Seas
Giovanna Marino – Institute for Environmental Protection and Research (ISPRA)

H. 11.30 – 11.45 Coffee break

Displace: An Innovative bio-economic model for spatial planning with fisheries
François Bastardie – Senior researcher at DTU AQUA National Institute of Aquatic Resources (Denmark)

Stakeholder engagement and interactive approach to innovation: the experience of public innovation broker in Marche Region
ASSAM, Agency for Agro-food Services of Marche Region

H.12.30 – 13.15 Session III: ARIEL & DORY Pilot activities for innovation up-take in Adriatic and Ionian Sea
Moderator: Mauro Marini – Responsible of CNR-ISMAR Ancona

ARIEL Pilot Activities for innovation speed-up and up-taking in small-scale fisheries and aquaculture
ARIEL Project partners (IOR, HCMR, IMBK)

DORY Pilot Activities for restocking and sustainable aquaculture
DORY Project Partners (Veneto Region, Friuli Venezia Giulia and Emilia Romagna Regions)

H.13.15 – 14.30 – Networking lunch

H. 14.30 – 15.30 Session IV: European Funding opportunities for fisheries and aquaculture

Horizon 2020 – Horizon 2020 - The Blue Growth Forthcoming Calls

Matteo Sabini – NCP Support Team per Horizon 2020 – Societal Challenge 2 (SC2), APRE

Interreg Adrion Programme - the second call in a nutshell

Natalino Barbizzi – Marche Region, National Contact point for Italy of the INTERREG ADRION Programme

H.15.30 – 16.00 Conclusions and end of the Conference

CONTACTS AND INFO:

Progetto ARIEL - fabio.grati@ismar.cnr.it

Progetto DORY - laura.gagliardini@regione.marche.it

ARIEL (cod.278) is co-funded by INTERREG VB ADRION 2014-2020 Programme

DORY (cod. 10041641) is co-funded by INTERREG VA ITALY-CROATIA 2014-2020 Programme