STATE AID³ RELEVANCE

15) in the context of the project, the organisation I represent shall be considered as:

undertaking not undertaking ⁴

³According to Article 107 (ex Article 87) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, State aid is defined as any aid granted by a Member State or through State resources in any form whatsoever which distorts or threatens to distort competition by favouring certain undertakings or the production of certain goods. In order to be considered State Aid, a funded activity must fulfil all the following 5 criteria as inferable from the definition of State Aid provided in the Article 107(1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, accordingly to the "Commission Notice on the notion of State aid as referred to in Article 107(1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union" (2016/C 262/01).

⁴State aid occurs when the recipient of the aid is an "undertaking". Undertaking is an entity engaged in an "economic activity" in the context of the project. Any project partner offering goods or services on a market in the context of the project is an

16) in the context of the project, the organisation I represent carries out economic activities⁵ that are potentially State Aid relevant:

Yes No

only in case the answer is YES:

a) it performs activities or provides/develops/offers good/services for which a market exists;

and/or

b) it implements activities or provides/develops/offers good/services that can be carried out by an operator in order to make profit;

and/or

c) it plans to carry out any activities involving construction of infrastructure that will be exploited commercially and/or that will be not available for public use for free within the project;

In case you have marked any of the above point a), b) and c):

the activities carried out, as above identified in the section 16), shall bring a selective advantage to the organisation I represent as follow:⁶

undertaking, regardless of its legal status (public or private) and whether its aim to make profit or not. An undertaking can be a SME, a large company, an NGO, an association, a university, etc.

⁵ An “economy activity” is broadly defined as offering goods or services on a given market. If the project partner carries out non-economic activities in the project, there is no State aid even if this organisation normally carries out activities of economic nature. The contrary (i.e. economic activities are performed in the project by an organisation that normally does not carry out economic activities) can also occur, thus resulting in State aid relevance.

⁶ In order to qualify as State aid relevant the project activities which are identified as economic carried out within the project shall bring an advantage to your Organisation which you would not have obtained under normal market conditions. This might also consist of relieved costs that your Organisation normally bear. If there isn't this selective advantage or benefit there is no State aid.

a) it will gain benefits from the economic activities which otherwise it would have not received in the normal course of business (i.e. in the absence of funding granted by the project);

and/or

b) it will be relieved of some costs which otherwise it would have not happened in the normal course of business (i.e. in the absence of funding granted by the project);

17) Only in case you have marked “undertaking” within section 15) and “Yes” with any of the declarations within section 16):

- the organization I represent carries out the following activities that are potentially State aid relevant (kindly fill-in the table below, with detailed information):
