Work Package:	5. Pilots for endangered species restoration and Integrated coastal/marine management system
Activity	5.4 - Ocean literacy toolkit and events
Deliverable:	5.4.3 - Local events

Project Partner:	PP8 Delta2000
Name of event:	Cascade summer events - The rediscovered Cervia
Date:	Wednesday 13 TH July, 10.00 AM
Event type:	Guided tour
Event venue:	Cervia - Acervum la Dama delle Saline, Via Madonna della Neve
Short description of the event:	Guided bike tour in the suggestive setting of the salt pan to discover the history of the ancient history of Cervia
Speakers speeches, brief summary and conclusion:	The attendee, mainly family of tourists, had the chance to visit the salt pan of Cervia from a privileged point of view. Indeed it was possible for them to have a fun and dynamic bike ride up to the archaeological site of Cervia Vecchia, the ancient remains of the roman city, accompanied by an expert archeologist who explained the history of the area. All the attendees were fascinated by the particular history of Cervia, and were interested in observing the structures and walls built centuries ago that are again seeing the light thanks to the work of the archeologist, all framed in the suggestive setting of birds, vegetation and water of the salt pan.
Role of CASCADE partner in the event:	Delta 2000 coordinated the event, providing contents and local institutional contacts, acting through the external expertise provided by Atlantide Soc. Coop.
Type of audience/target groups involved:	Family, tourists, students, citizens participated in stand activities.

Date:	Wednesday 27 TH July, 9.00 PM
Event type:	Guided tour
Event venue:	Cattolica - Museo della Regina, Via G. Pascoli 23
Short description of the event:	Guided tour of the museum of Cattolica, to discover the boats of the ancient Adriatic fishing and the maritime transport tradition.
Speakers speeches, brief summary and conclusion:	The tour was hosted by the director of the Museum, who guided the attendee in a journey along time to discover the strong connection of the city of Cattolica and the seafaring tradition. Starting from the founding of the city it was shown through maps, reconstructions and ancient objects how the construction of boats is an ancient art still strong in the culture of Cattolica. After an excursus on the evolution of the building operation, it was possible to have an insight on the cultural and familiar importance of the sea; the characteristic “sails to the third” were sewed by the women and then tinted by the sailors, who drew on them typical and unique forms. Due to the interest and questions of the participants it also investigated the theme of religion and belief, and was curious for everyone to discover the origin of the symbol of the Cattolica: the eyes, always present on the frontal part of the boats to serve as spiritual guidance during the navigation. The final part of the visit included the vision of the docu-interview “Gente di mare” made to the old local fisherman, who reconstructed their lives and the difficulties and privation of their work, but also its satisfactions and deep love that each one of them have for the sea.

Event venue:	Rimini - Piazzale Kennedy
Short description of the event:	Bike tour of Rimini guided by Cristian Savioli, tourist and environmental guide
Speakers speeches, brief summary and conclusion:	Following the guide Cristian Savioli, the participants had the chance to discover the promenade of Rimini. Starting from the historic villas and hotels, such as the magnificent Grand Hotel, that are positioned along the streets connecting the city centre to the sea, the bike ride reached the seafront up to the canal port. Here are moored fishing vessels, allowing an insight on the fishing traditions. Moreover the graffiti and murals around all the itinerary reminded the strong connection of Rimini with the filmmaker Federico Fellini, creating a suggestive scenario in which tradition and history meet the modern nightlife of the city.

Event venue:	Port of Gorino Ferrarese - Via al mare 27
Short description of the event:	Boat excursion at sunset to the Island of Love of Gorino
Speakers speeches, brief summary and conclusion:	The participants had the exclusive chance to sail for a boat excursion in the suggestive scenario of Gorino, between river and lagoon, reeds, herons and fishermen. The young couple who followed the tour enjoyed a romantic walk on the shoreline, discovering the not so well known Island of Love. The guide also explained the ecological characteristics of the area and showed the new and restored lighthouse of Goro, which is indeed on the Island of Love. Short description of the event: B o a t excursion with the first light of dawn, to admire the river and lagoon, among reeds, herons and fishermen. We reached the Old Lantern and the new Lighthouse of Goro, on the so called “island of Love”, where the river meets the sea. The participants tried a multisensory experience walking barefoot on the beach shoreline, natural and wild, among shells, trunks and seagulls, perceiving colors and smells, silences and sounds of the sea and the wind.

Event venue:	Riccione – Viale Torino 7/A
Short description of the event:	Evening walk on the seashore to discover the traces of night marine life, in collaboration with Fondazione Cetacea.
Speakers speeches, brief summary and conclusion:	A marine biologist made a brief lecture on the possible forms of life that are commonly found on the shoreline, also showing some specimens of bivalves and gastropods, in order to give to the participants all the information to recognize them during the walk. The people interested were then guided toward the beach to observe and learn about the form of lifes that lives in our waters. Oysters and clams were the main subjects of the hunt since offshore are widespread on the rocks but also due to farming; it was a lucky night since there was also a great number of murex and ray's eggs. The children were thrilled to explore the beach at night trying to detect shells with the torches and also running into the water, while the adults enjoyed curiosities and stories about the area and its traditions related to the sea. Thanks to the collaboration of Fondazione Cetacea it was also possible to attend a brief visit to the Recovery Centre, Care and Rehabilitation of Turtles and observe the specimens in the tanks, an experience both emotional and educative for all the participants to the event.

Event type:	Guided tour
Event venue:	Cesenatico - Cesenatico Maritime Museum, Via Armellini 18
Short description of the event:	Guided tour of the Maritime Museum and the boats of its floating tradition, visit to the fish market and the fish auction
Speakers speeches, brief summary and conclusion:	This guided tour was the perfect opportunity to discover or deepen the knowledge of the maritime tradition of Cesenatico: starting from the floating section of the Maritime Museum, it has been possible thanks to the expert's guide to discover how fishing activities have evolved over time, remaining fundamental to the economy and society of this city until today. The second part of the tour was led by a local fisherman, who after showing the port and the different types of boats moored also allowed participants to visit his fishing vessel, an experience that has certainly involved and excited all the participants. Since the attendees were interested in the opportunity to discover the backstage and part of the fishing activities less open to the public, the guide also led them to the place where fishing nets and boats are repaired, offering the chance to observe artisans at work and ask them questions about their valuable work. The participants showed interests in learning more about seafaring, also to improve their role as conscious consumers.
