REPORT of the Scientific conference “AdriAquaNet - La fattoria del pesce: dalla scienza alla tavola e ritorno” Trieste NEXT 2020 (<https://www.triestenext.it/>).

- Trieste Next is an "observatory" where applied research and new technologies find visibility, a "laboratory" of concrete ideas and practical solutions to increase the well-being of communities and the competitiveness of SMEs.
- PP2 submitted a project of scientific dissemination in Spring 2020 (see report 3). The event proposed was a scientific conference titled “AdriAquaNet - La fattoria del pesce: dalla scienza alla tavola e ritorno”. The project was approved by the organising committee.
- The event was designed as a dialogue with experts (Sabina Passamonti of PP2, Marco Francese, external expert) a moderator (Stelio Smotlak, staff of the University of Trieste) and the public attending the conference. It was agreed to collect the questionnaires. Other persons gave support to the event: Rodolfo Riccamboni (Vivulgando srl, external expert supporting PP2 for WP2), Paola Sist and Nevenka Medic, both researchers of PP2, Luisa Donini, student of PP2, Ambra Delneri, collaborator of Marco Francese). This team of 8 people met twice to prepare the event.
- It was also an occasion comment the questionnaires about consumers preferences, an activity managed by PP5 and for which PP2 gave support to collect answers in the Italian area.
- There have been 123 participants.
