1:48 pm, Fri 24th Dec 2021	Dear friends and partners, we wish you a merry, merry Christmas! 🎄🎅🎁👶	Video	4	0	30
9:00 am, Mon 6th Dec 2021	[Today we celebrate St. Nicholas 🙏 patron saint of sailors ➡ Without brave sailors there would be no old ports either!] How did it work in old Salona? The life of the ancient and maritime-oriented #Salona, since the 3rd century, was unthinkable without the sea and the Salonitan port, which received a large number of merchant ships from all over the Mediterranean. Old records say that the Salonitan port had a long and operational coast with accompanying infrastructure, while in front of it was a sea area 300 meters wide, which was enough to maneuver merchant ships. In addition to its important role in trade, the port of Salonitan was also a port for ships of the Mezzanine and the Poor Imperial Navy. Saint Nicholas (270-343), bishop, protector of children and sailors, born in the 3rd century, was a contemporary of life and these records of ancient #Salona, its seafaring and Salona port. #tempus #interreg Grad Solin	Video	4	0	34

10:00 am, Thu 2nd Dec 2021	[FROM THE TREASURY OF @Pomorski i povijesni muzej Hrvatskog primorja Rijeka ➡ #Tempus project partner] Epidemiological measures caused by the pandemic of the #COVID-19 virus we live with today have been known since the 15th century spread of unknown diseases. Such a practice was applied by all port cities, including the old port of #Rijeka. In this context, the fate of the crew of one of the most famous Kvarner sailing ships, Sattor from Lošinj, which had to undergo quarantine in a port in the state of Mississippi (USA), is interesting. There is even evidence of this in the form of a document describing the cost of quarantine for the crew of a sailing ship in the amount of $ 20. The signatories are Captain A. Minio and Officer S. Cosulich. Learn more about Adriatic port heritage @myportheritage.eu! Photo credit: Pomorski i povijesni muzej Hrvatskog primorja Rijeka #tempus #interreg	Photo	5	0	41

am, Wed 1st Dec 2021	City of #Solin is located in Dalmatia, N-E of #Split. Thanks to 20th Century's industrialization, the city tuned into an independent Municipality, included in Split's conurbation. #Solin is growing fast and it has almost reached its spatial limits regarding administrative and geographical parameters. Urban #renewal of built zones where industrial and #port facilities are placed, is needed to avoid further urban sprawl, to activate the existing potentials and to re-define the identity of the city. See more http://www.solin.hr/ Tempus Project Interreg ITA CRO brings together nine partners from #Croatia and #Italy with the aim of regenerating abandoned urban ports areas, respecting the cultural heritage and customs of the community.

9:00 pm, Thu 25th Nov 2021	[WEEKEND IDEA ] EXPLORE RIJEKA ➡ BREAKWATER AND OLD STEAMER "URAGAN"] 📍 Did you know that #Rijeka breakwater is popularly called Molo longo? From the beginning of the seventies of the 19th century, Rijeka started with the construction of a completely new port, and that was also the time of the city's industrialization and great architectural achievements. 📍 Completed in 1888, it was originally called the Maria Theresa breakwater, then the Ammiraglio Cagni breakwater, and after the Second World War the Petar Drapšina breakwater and today the Rijeka breakwater.	Photo	3	0	46

	In the early twentieth century, it was part of the port complex along with the newly established Lazarus shipyard, and since 1912 it has even received curious bathers at the luxurious two-story Quarnero beach. During the Austro-Hungarian monarchy, it was also the seat of the Quarnero, Liburnia and Cannotieri Fiumani rowing clubs. The breakwater was completed in its full length only after the Second World War after the post-war reconstruction. In addition to the passenger terminal, there are two renovated cranes, a series of smaller fishing boats, occasional excursion boats, and a special attraction on the breakwater is the old steamer "Uragan" built in the 1970s. Within the #TEMPUS project and with the aim of restoring the port heritage, areas of exceptional port history were mapped in the pilot areas, of #Rijeka, #Solin and #Ravenna. Photo credit: Maritime and History Museum of the Croatian Littoral Rijeka

 U okviru međunarodnog projekta TEMPUS koji se provodi na tri pilot područja u Italiji i Hrvatskoj, Romanski i povijesni muzej hrvatskog primorja Rijeka postao je u kolovozu na riječkom Varsu stolica Prossol (Fluzes) posvećenu kulturnoj baštini nekadašnje riječke luke. Četiri temeljne pojine protove, oko kojih priča muzej luke, Industrije i grada. Protovi robe i strojna linijevost je suvremena luka, a da bi se neizmjerne odvijale, luka mora imati prostore za skladištenje i prenošenje. U riječi se koridori 19. stoljeća u Rijeku, uz ubrzan razvoj brodogradnje, razvoja i luke sjajnost se ne grade, imponentna željeznička stajnica na pozovu od Raja Zadruga do Rijeke (danas 15. maj), Tuzini je skladište sroga i željezničke stajnice, a nekoliko ih je ostavljeno da stane, ako su stoga smisljeni i aktivirani luke vrednom prazninu. [WEEKEND IDEA | EKSPLORE RIJEKA | BREAKWATER AND OLD STEAMER "URAGAN"]

- Did you know that #Rijeka breakwater is popularly called Molo longo? From the beginning of the seventies of the 19th century, Rijeka started with the construction of a completely new port, and that was also the time of the city's industrialization and great architectural achievements.
- Completed in 1884, it was originally called the Maria Theresa breakwater, then the Ammiraglio Cagni breakwater, and after the Second World War the Petar Drapšina breakwater and today the Rijeka breakwater.
- In the early twentieth century, it was part of the port complex along with the newly established Lazarus shipyard, and since 1912 it has even received curious bathers at the luxurious two-story Quarnero beach. During the Austro-Hungarian monarchy, it was also the seat of the Quarnero, Liburnia and Cannotieri Fiumani rowing clubs.
- The breakwater was completed in its full length only after the Second World War after the post-war reconstruction. In addition to the passenger terminal, there are two renovated cranes, a series of smaller fishing boats, occasional excursion boats, and a special attraction on the breakwater is the old steamer "Uragan" built in the 1970s.

Within the #TEMPUS project and with the aim of restoring the port heritage, areas of exceptional port history were mapped in the pilot areas of #Rijeka, #Zadar and #Ravenna.

[MEET #TEMPUS PROJECT PARTNER. 📍 Grad Solin]

City of #Solin is located in Dalmatia, N-E of #Split. Thanks to 20th Century's industrialization, the city tuned into an independent Municipality, included in Split's conurbation. #Solin is growing fast and it has almost reached its spatial limits regarding administrative and geographical parameters. Urban #renewal of built zones where industrial and #port facilities are placed, is needed to avoid further urban sprawl, to activate the existing potentials and to re-define the identity of the city.

Tempus Project Interreg ITA CRO brings together nine partners from #Croatia and #Italy with the aim of regenerating abandoned urban ports areas, respecting the cultural heritage and customs of the community.

(FROM THE TREASURY OF @Pomorski i povijesni muzej Hrvatskog primorja Rijeka 📷 #Tempus project partner) Epidemiological measures caused by the pandemic of the #COVID-19 virus we live with today have been known since the 15th century spread of unknown diseases. Such a practice was applied by all port cities, including the old port of #Rijeka. In this context, the fate of the crew of one of the most famous Kvarner sailing ships, Sator from Lošinj, which had to undergo quarantine in a port in the state of Mississippi (USA), is interesting. There is even evidence of this in the form of a document describing the cost of quarantine for the crew of a sailing ship in the amount of $ 20. The signatories are Captain A. Minio and Officer S. Cosulich.
